“In the beginning was the Word...” (John 1:1)

We invite you to begin your Lenten journey through the passion to the resurrection of Christ our Lord by listening to the Word of God through our Lenten offerings at Loyola.

A Lenten Day of Prayer

“New Beginnings”

February 15, 2012

Led by Anna Graziano

9:30am – 3:30pm

Here we are only 6 weeks into the 2012. Come this day and prepare your heart and attitude in a spirit of hope, joy and peace. "Rise up, be off to the potter's house; there I will give you my message." Jeremiah 18:2

Open To All; Suggested Offering: $35.00

Ash Wednesday Mid-Week Retreat for MEN and WOMEN

“Serenity”

February 21-23, 2012

Led by Fr. Steve Pugliese, S.J.

Serenity in life is what the Lord meant by peace that passes understanding. It is the narrow gate that few find. This retreat will discuss the nature of serenity and what blocks us from finding it as we are meant to.

For this preached retreat, retreatants should arrive between 5-7pm for registration on Tuesday; departure after lunch on Thursday.

Road to the Spiritual Exercises

Led by Fr. Anton Harris, SJ

March 13, 20, 27, 2012

7:00-8:30pm

An introduction to the structure and dynamics of the prayer of the Spiritual Exercises. This Lenten series is a continuation of the presentations during Advent. It is not necessary that you attended Advent sessions. All are welcome.

March 13: Christ Calls Us

March 20: Christ Presents His Standard

March 27: The Risen Christ Approaches Us
